If you make a false statement on this application, you could be found guilty of a Class A misdemeanor or a state jail felony under Texas Penal Code Section 37.10.

 You are required to give us this information on this form, in order to perform tax related functions for this office. Section 11.43 of the Tax Code authorizes this office to request this information to determine tax compliance. The chief appraiser is required to keep the information confidential and not open to public inspection, except to appraisal office employees who appraise property and as authorized by Section 11.48(b), Tax Code.*

Additional Information

The law requires you to file with your chief appraiser a use determination, which is conclusive evidence of the property's use. If you cannot file your determination before the chief appraiser acts on exemption applications, the chief appraiser may deny the application because you have not proved you qualify, or the chief appraiser may ask for additional information to prove you qualify. You may protest a denial to the appraisal review board.
