BUSINESS PERSONAL PROPERTY RENDITION OF TAXABLE PROPERTY

For January 1, 2008

AGENT NAME AND MAILING ADDRESS OR BUSINESS NAME AND MAILING ADDRESS

ACCOUNT NUMBERS & LEGAL DESCRIPTION

IMPORTANT: This rendition covers property you own or manage and control as a fiduciary on January 1 of this year. You must file this return with the county appraisal district after January 1 and not later than April 15 of this year. If you fail to timely file a rendition, you will be liable for a penalty equal to 10 percent of the total amount of taxes imposed by the taxing units. If a court determines that you filed a false rendition or report with the intent to commit fraud or evade the tax or you alter, destroy, or conceal any record, document, or thing or present to the chief appraiser any altered or fraudulent record, document, or thing, or otherwise engage in fraudulent conduct for the purpose of affecting the outcome of an inspection, investigation determination, or other proceeding before the appraisal district, the chief appraiser must impose a penalty equal to 50 percent of the total taxes due on the property for the current year. The chief appraiser must grant an extension for the filing date up to May 15 if requested in writing prior to the filing deadline. You may receive an additional 15-day extension if you request it in writing and show good cause for the extension. If the chief appraiser denies an exemption or an exemption to a property on January 1 terminates during the tax year, you must file a rendition form within 30 days after the termination.

In completing your rendition, state law provides you may either provide a good faith estimate of the market value or the historical cost of the property when purchased and the year acquired. It is at your discretion to provide either one or both types of information. If your good faith estimate of total value for your property is less than $20,000 you only need to render a general description of the property and its physical location or taxable situs (Section 1 below). State law also provides the chief appraiser may require you to provide a statement substantiating the information reported in this form. If the chief appraiser notifies you in writing requiring this additional information, you must provide the statement within 21 days of the date you receive the request.
