According to the Texas Property Tax Code Section 41.44, to be entitled to a hearing, the property owner must file a written notice of protest before May 15th or not later than the 30th day after the date that the notice was delivered to the property owner as provided by Section 25.19, whichever date is later.

You may file a late notice of protest before the ARB approves the appraisal records and may be granted a hearing if the board determines that you had good cause for failing to meet the deadlines above. Some examples of unforeseeable events or extraordinary circumstance of good cause would include accidents, illnesses, and emergencies. Documentation of these good causes will be required to be submitted with this form.

My good cause and the reason I was not able to file a written protest before the above mentioned deadlines is as follows:

By signing below I hereby certify:

- 1) I am the owner of this property or a designated agent of the property owner.
- 2) That the above statements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
